This bill encourages schools that voluntarily provide character development education to students to include in their character development curriculum lessons on the history and values of veterans awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

The bill also encourages that the continuing education of school staff include training in the history and values of veterans awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor as offered fee-free from organizations such as the Congressional Medal of Honor Foundation. The bill encourages continuing education and relicensure committees to approve up to six hours of credit for Congressional Medal of Honor training.
